THE CITY.

☞ THE SUBSCRIPTION LIST OF THE DAILY NEWS IS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY IN THE STATE, AND MORE THAN DOUBLE THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY IN RALEIGH. ADVERTISERS WILL MAKE A NOTE OF THIS.

WEATHER REPORT.

For the South Atlantic States, higher barometer, cooler northeast to southeast winds, and partly cloudy weather will prevail, with possibly occasional rains in the southern portion.

——T. and V. Executive Committee to-night.

——It will be seen that Judge Fowle has extended his appointments to the 15th of September.

——Cool nights from this out, and the warfare with the mosquitoes can be conducted with more comfort.

——Messrs. Blake, Mahler and Hogg, are in the full tide of grape gathering and wine making, at their vineyard near the city.

——There will be a meeting of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, R. A. M., at Masonic Hall, in the Fisher building, this evening.

——A great many people will go from Raleigh to Jonesboro on the 25th, to witness the passage at arms between Vance and Settle.

——The weather has finally come down to something like a business basis. Yesterday was quite pleasant, and last evening was delightful.

——The Graded School now numbers 888 pupils on its rolls. The school is quite full now, but 10 or 12 more can get in yet, by applying early.

——There will be an important meeting of the Trustees of the Graded School at 5.30 o'clock this afternoon at the law office of Battle & Battle & Mordecai.

Messrs. Howard & Bryan, of this city, will post Durham, to-day, with old John's bills. An excursion will be run from that place to Raleigh on the day the circus is here.

——On account of the sickness of Judge Watts, Warren Court has been postponed to the second week; so instead of beginning next Monday, it will not begin until next Monday week.

——A correspondent writes that at Lanesboro Anson county, where the Democrats have heretofore had but 28 votes, a Tilden and Vance Club has recently been organized with one hundred and twenty members.

——A Tilden and Vance Club was formed last Saturday at Riddick's Store, in St. Matthew's Township, about seven miles from the city, with about twenty-six members. Dr. Willie Jones was elected President.

——An individual whose name was not ascertained, walked, or rather fell, into the cut at the bridge over the North Carolina Railroad, near Hayes' Church, last evening, missing the bridge entirely in the effort to cross. The distance from the top to the bottom of the cut is not less than 25 feet yet incredible as it may seem, the man was not hurt by the fall. Forty-nine men out of fifty would have been killed stone dead, but there are some people who just seem to have a knack of getting away with the Arch Enemy.

Gov. Tilden's Signature.

'Tis often that things which per se are totally uninteresting, may of a sudden, by some circumstance, become invested with great interest to the people. This is the case with a requisition now in the executive office, from Gov. Tilden, upon the Governor of North Carolina, for one Wm. H. Harrison, who was guilty of neglect of official duty in Orange county, New York, and refugeed to this State. The requisition bears date of February 19th, 1875, and now there are few people who would not like to see the signature attached to the paper. It is, however, a very ordinary looking signature. The Great Reform Governor writes something like a school boy. The writing is small and there is nothing striking about it, except that the capital J looks like an I, that the small i is not dotted and that there is no punctuation mark after the name. The name will have still another interest when he begins to sign it with the word "President" after it.

Meeting of the Light Infantry.

A meeting of the members of the Raleigh Light Infantry was held, last night, at the Mayor's office. During the Summer, as is usual during this season, the organization has not been having regular drills, nor performing other of its usual exercises. It was resolved last night that in September the Company proceed with a thorough organization, and put itself in training for the Fair

Republican County Convention.

The Republican Executive Committee of Wake county met in this city, yesterday, and called the County Convention for the 11th prox. The township will elect delegates on the 8th. Raleigh Township including the city will elect twelve. Wake Forge five, and the other townships each three delegates—meeting in the city, the former to a choice, thirty-

Raleigh—Improvements—Street Work.

Three drives around Raleigh (one of the most beautiful places in the Southern States,) has shown us many improvements of which those who confine themselves to the principal streets, have never dreamed. All over the city new buildings are going up. Numbers of residences, some of them large and elegant, are being built all over the city, and on as many more the paint has scarcely more than dried. It is remarkable that in this time of financial depression, the spirit of improvement should find such an amount of development, but it is true that there are none of the outward evidences here of "hard times," but on the contrary, everything (in the way of permanent improvements,) to indicate a healthy financial feeling.

There is one other thing, too, which is very pleasing to observe, and that is the improvements which are constantly being made upon the streets. Street Commissioner Andrews, with his force of 30, is doing excellent service all over the city, in the way of building bridges, culverts, drains, repairing streets, &c. He has just finished a fine rock culvert across North street, at its intersection with Halifax. Yesterday he deepened the gutter of Fayetteville street near the Governor's Palace, started a new gutter on Martin street, in front of and around the corner of the Ben H. Adams building, into Wilmington street, and began a new bridge at the intersection of Blount and Lenoir streets. He is an active, energetic man, and his efforts are well directed; but his work is on every hand, and speaks best for itself.

All in all, one cannot make a tour of the city, without being impressed with the idea that its improvements are creditable to its citizens, and are of a solid character. With its eligibility of location, wealthy and industrious class of citizens, with a business which is improving with each year, it cannot fail to yet become a large city and occupy a prominent and enviable position among the commercial marts of the South.

Executive Committees of the Democratic Party.

The following is an extract from the records of the late Democratic State Convention:

From Second District—A. J. Galloway, of Wayne, R. B. Peebles, of Northampton, J. D. Long, of Craven, W. J. Green, of Warren.

From Third District—No report on file.

From Fourth District—No report on file.

From Fifth District—No report on file.

From Sixth District—H. C. Jones, of Mecklenburg, E. R. Liles, of Anson, J. T. LeGrand, of Richmond, Wm. Stowe, of Gaston.

From Seventh District—No report on file.

From Eighth District—No report on file.

If any recommendations were made for the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh and Eighth Districts, the names of the persons so recommended to the Convention, will please be forwarded to Gen. W. R Cox.

Personal.

Bishop Lyman leaves this morning for California, and will not return before the 1st of November.

Messrs. Chas. E. Johnston, Geo. M. Smedes, Iredell Johnston and P. F. Faison, leave this morning for the Centennial.

Messrs P. H. Andrews and Joel Whitaker returned, yesterday afternoon, from the Centennial.

John Pool left, yesterday morning, for Washington City, and will be absent for some time.

T. C. Wooburn, Esq., editor of the Durham Herald, is in the city.

S. F. Tomlinson, Esq., formerly Principal of the Asylum for the Deaf, the Dumb and the Blind, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon en route for Philadelphia, for which city he leaves this morning.

Col. J. F. Coyle, of Washington, is again in the city.

The Mines of North Carolina.

The following, which is from the Boston Post, is based upon an article that appeared recently in the NEWS, but the two concluding sentences are additional information, and must be very gratifying. We sincerely hope that they are true:

"British explorers are at work in Chatham county, N. C prospecting for copper, gold and silver ore An agent of the principals says that there is more gold in North Carolina than in California; that the mines are deeper, and richer at great depth; that five or six square miles in Montgomery county can produce gold enough to pay the national debt, and that all the mines will pay $25 a ton. Fifteen millions of capital are backing the enterprise. A smelting furnace costing $100,000 will be built, and 600 skilled operatives will be brought from England."

For the News.

GATHER THE CLANS.

RESPECTFULLY DEDICATED TO THE TILDEN AND VANCE CLUBS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Ye sons of Anglo Saxon sires,
Who waded floods and walked thro' fires,
Who visaged death's for LIBERTY,
Nor stopped till every State was free—
Your Mother! North Carolina calls,
"Fill up my ranks and man my walls!
Shoulder to shoulder! Join your hands!
Gather the clans, men! Gather the clans!

"Who are the men, your Peace now mar?
Open new wounds from bleeding scar!
Who agitate in Peace for War?
Union, Peace, Plenty all debar!
See! Beauty weeping, sighing stands!
Peace, Mercy holding out both hands!
Shoulder to shoulder! Join your hands!
Gather the clans, men! Gather the clans!

Ye mountaineers! my gallant West!
Sons, daughters of the Hornet's Nest!
We've had enough of bloody wars!
Send 'em some Bourbon and cigars!
Shoulder to shoulder! Join your hands!
Gather the clans, men! Gather the clans!

"Ye lambs in peace, in war ye lions!
Ere know to drive out tyrant Tryons!
Saw Tarleton's back; and vanquished tories!
Have ye forgot your former glories?
'Tis North Carolina thundering calls,
Her face a flame on Freemen's walls!
Shoulder to shoulder! Join your hands!
Gather the clans, men! Gather the clans!

"All ages ever spawn new Tryons
Of noble sires prove yourselves scions!
Give Grantism eent vidi, fuit!
Tis all mankind shrieks. Encore, Encore!
Your Mother! North Carolina calls!
Up! fill the ranks! Man all my walls!
Shoulder to shoulder! Join all hands!
Gather the clans, men! Gather the clans!"

Religious Exercises, Sunday.

All the churches of the city were open last Sunday. The weather was more pleasant than it had been for days past, and the city turned out very generally to church. In most of the churches, the exercises were destitute of especial features. Bishop Lyman preached in the morning at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rev. R. Burwell preached in the morning at the Presbyterian Church, and in each of the other churches the pastors officiated as usual. In the evening, Dr. Burkhead and Dr. Pritchard both preached to young men, the former from the text, "My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not," the latter preached about Gideon, and both of the sermons are pronounced very excellent efforts. In the Salisbury Street Baptist Church, after the evening service, Rev. Mr. Howell made a talk to the congregation, in which he said that he had recently been in the Western part of the State, and found the convicts at work on the railroad there, anxious for bibles, testaments or even tracts. He appealed to those present to send to them some religious literature, stating the wants of the convicts in this respect.

The question of the Sunday School excursion to the Centennial was discussed in the Sunday Schools in the morning. It was ascertained that satisfactory terms could not be made with the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, and the Bay Line of Steamers, and a committee was appointed from the different schools to learn if arrangements could be made with the North Carolina Railroad to carry the excursion via Greensboro and Danville.

The Penitentiary Sunday School.

There was no lack of teachers at the Penitentiary, last Sunday afternoon. All the classes were supplied and the convicts were very attentive. A lady went out from the city and accompanied the singing by music on the organ. It seems certain that a good impression is being made by this school, upon the unfortunates in this institution. Directors of the Penitentiary and others have noticed that several of the convicts seem to be impressed, and the same fact has been noticed by the teachers, who are highly encouraged as to the result of their labors. W. H. H. Houston, the Mecklenburg forger, who is now sick in the hospital, is noticed as one of this number. Last Sunday was the first time he has been absent from his class, of which Gov. Holden is the teacher. There are quite a number of others who manifest an interest in their spiritual welfare, and this fact stimulates the teachers to renewed exertions in their laudable work.

Change of Officers.

Information has reached the city that Jas. G. Hill has been appointed Supervising Architect of the Government Buildings, vice W. A. Potter, who tendered his resignation. Potter, being one of Bristow's appointees, is said to have received an intimation that he would be kicked out, and resigned to save his credit. Hill had been first assistant under Potter, and is represented as being a very capable man. His appointment is not supposed to have any political significance. This change will make no alteration in the management of the government building here, and the rumor which obtained currency some time ago, to the effect that Col. Harris was to be supplanted, lacks confirmation.

Seriously Sick.

The information comes from Franklinton, that Judge Watts is very seriously ill at his residence in that place. The affliction with which he was seized at Nash Court, has been pronounced to be meningitis, and at last accounts his situation was said to be critical. He has known no better since being taken home.

Death and Burial of Dr. Hooper.

We have learned some additional particulars concerning the death and burial of Rev. Dr. Wm. Hooper, who breathed his last at the residence of his son-in-law, Prof. J. D'B. Hooper, at Chapel Hill, on Saturday evening last. Dr. Hooper died in his 84th year. His mind was clear, strong and active up to his death. He knew that his end was nigh; and, as he lived, so did he die: bravely, hopefully, and with complete resignation to God's will. He died within the sound of the University bell, whose daily summons to intellectual labor typifies his life-work in behalf of advanced education. His remains lay in state in the University Chapel, guarded by a delegation from the Philanthropic and Dialectic Societies.

On Sunday an immense congregation assembled in the chapel. Prof. Redd preached the funeral sermon on "the power of an endless life." Dr. Hooper had requested to be buried by the side of his step father, Dr. Caldwell and his mother. He was placed, as he desired, by the old Caldwell monument in rear of the new west building. He was borne to the grave by Hon. Paul Cameron, Profs. Graves and Winston, and Dr. Robeson, D. McCauley, Esq., and Capt. Hutchins.

We hope that some one acquainted with Dr. Hooper, will give us a biography, embracing the story of his life and his service to his native State.

Mother Found.

In Sunday morning's issue of the NEWS, we told the story of a boy who was bound to Dan Castello here in Raleigh ten years ago, and who had written from Mobile, Ala., for information concerning his mother, Edy Ann Todd. Well, the item brought the old lady to taw. It is discovered that she lives within three miles of Smithfield, Johnston county. A letter and a message concerning her, were received, yesterday, by policeman Parker, and the newspaper item is likely to bring the mother and son together again. A man in this city speaks of sending for the boy to come and work for him.

The Show Bills.

The large pictures of old John Robinson's strictly moral circus, greeted the vision of the Raleigh churchgoers, as they wended their way to the sanctuaries, Sunday morning. The most exemplary citizens could not refrain from casting furtive glances towards the animals, to see which they will carry the children, while the stiffs, and bums, and gutter-snipes, the niggers and the small boys, sat deliberately down on the curbstones and viewed with unconcealed emotion the picture of the elephant as it stood on its head, and the fantastic antics of the educated mule.

Meeting of Executive Committee.

The Executive Committee of the Tilden and Vance Club, is called to meet to-night, and business of importance is to come up. The members of the committee are as follows: Chairman—W. H. Bledsoe; Committee for First Ward—Graham Haywood, W. E. Weaver; Second Ward—M. Harrison, Frank Stronach; Third Ward—B. F. Cheatham, C. F. Lumsden; Fourth Ward—Henry Miller, J. K. Dunn; Fifth Ward—George H. Williams, J. G. Justice; Raleigh Township, outside the city—S. F. Mordecai, W. R. Gales, L. W. Renn, B Z. Stanton.

Judge Merrimon on the Stump.

Hon. A. S. Merrimon will take the stump as soon as he receives notice of the appointments made for him by the Democratic State Central Executive Committee. He already has an appointment to address the people of Chatham at Pittsboro on the 7th of September. He has just received a letter from parties in Winston, asking to be allowed to make appointments for him in that section of the State. It is probable that he will canvass principally the range of counties lying along the Virginia line, beginning in Granville, about the 1st of October.

The Courts.

Mayor's Court—Roger Kelly, colored, was up for disorderly conduct, and was dismissed upon paying cost.

John Lee, colored was up for the same offence, and was dismissed upon the same terms.

Aleck Hicks, colored, was up for firing off a gun in the city limits, and was dismissed upon paying cost.

There was a case before Justice Magnin, but it was dismissed, the defendant proving clear.

The August Meteors.

These have begun to appear numerously. Last Sunday night the Northern sky was filled with them, some of them very large and brilliant. No doubt the clouds, which covered the sky every night last week, obscured from view thousands of these celestial phenomena.

Secret of Success.

People wonder at Dr. Blacknall's success as a hotelist, but the explanation is simple, and has been evident for a long time to any one who has ever watched him closely. Whenever a strange man comes, the doctor meets him as he gets out of the omnibus, shakes hands with him and calls him "Colonel." The man not only stops at the Yarborough when he comes back, but advises all of his acquaintances to do so. We are a nation of colonels, and Dr. Blacknall has made more of the American people such, than all the colleges of the country, since their foundation, have made D. D's—and for every colonel he has made at least $10.

Struck by a Rock.

George Council, colored, was throwing at a bird, yesterday, about the marble yard of Messrs. Hammill & Weir, when he accidentally struck George Jones, also colored, a full and severe blow in the forehead, inflicting a gash from which the blood flowed freely. The police were about to arrest the thrower, but it was explained by Messrs. H. & W., the employers of the boy who was struck, that the case was one of pure accident.

Reorganization of the Band.

An effort, in which Prof. Martin Thompson is the leader, is being made to reorganize the Raleigh Silver Cornet Band. To this end the citizens are being solicited for contributions to purchase new instruments and to employ a leader and instructor. About $200 is the amount required, and up to yesterday about $80 had been subscribed. It is to be hoped that no difficulty will be experienced in raising the residue, and that the organization will soon be effected.

Rumored Change of Schedule.

There is a rumor of a change of schedule on the North Carolina Railroad, on the 3d prox., under which change it is said trains will pass at Raleigh about 10 A. M., connecting coming East, at Greensboro, with the through express from Charlotte to Richmond. This indicates, we presume, that the double daily train is to be taken off the Richmond & Danville Railroad, and that only one train per day will be run between Charlotte and Richmond.

Capt. Davis to Take the Field.

Hon. Jos. J. Davis, member of Congress from this District, is at his home in Louisburg, well and in good spirits. He will, Providence permitting, meet Young, Badger, and others, at Laws', in this county, today, at Brassfield to-morrow, and at Rolesville on Thursday, and will no doubt give these worthies their hands full. He will be accompanied by W. M. Crenshaw, Esq., of Louisburg.

Shot in the Leg.

Last Saturday night, Mr. N. P. Steadman, who lives on the Rhamkatte road, near the Insane Asylum, heard some one in his cornfield, and going out with his shot-gun, espied the individual exercising undue liberty with the corn, pulling its ears, &c. He fired at the thief, and learned afterwards that he had shot a negro in the leg. The name of the thief is not reported, neither the extent of his injury.

Fire this Morning.

At 1.30 this morning, while the city was in a deep sleep, the alarm of fire rang along the streets. It proved to be caused by the burning of the stable of Mr. R. H. Page, on Harrington street, near the corner of Hillsboro. With the stable were burned two mules and several wagons, one of them a very fine one. The stable was entirely consumed, but nothing else except it and its contents. Mr. Page says there is no doubt that the fire was applied by an incendiary. The firemen were on hand, but were almost powerless, on account of the lack of water.

Gov. Vance's Appointments.

SOME Republican sheriffs will of course be elected this fall. If our people will refuse to go on their bonds, Democratic sheriffs would be chosen.

"WE can, we must, and we will beat them," is the talk in Greene county. Our Hookerton correspondent gives us an interesting statement of the condition of affairs in that quarter.

THE editor of the North Carolinian says: "Governor Vance began to defend himself in his first public speeches. He has been obliged to keep on doing so." Can he do otherwise when a thousand cuts are yelping at his heels?

GOVERNOR Brogden's audience at Tarboro on the 12th inst., was composed almost entirely of negroes. It could hardly be otherwise. He is thoroughly identified with the colored race, and has forfeited the respect and esteem of the men of his own blood.

THE Elizabeth City North Carolinian says: "Judge Settle has a good record. Originally a Jackson Union Democrat, in 1860 he joined the great body of the old Whig party of the State in its efforts to save the South to the Union." Very good; but it is his record since 1860 that we object to.

AN event occurred in South Carolina, last week, illustrative of the evil results of Radical Rule. A box of arms with fixed ammunition marked 'agricultural implements' was shipped to Newbury from Columbia, to be used for killing white men. These arms were surreptitiously sent by Purvis, the negro Adjutant General of the State.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA DEMOCRATS.

The platform of the Democratic State Convention of South Carolina, adopted on the 17th inst., takes high ground, and presents distinctly the great issues in that negro-ridden State, in the impending contest. The Democrats "turn from the settled and fixed past to the great living and momentous issues of the present and future;" and call upon all citizens, "irrespective of race or past party affiliation," to join with them in the work of restoring honest and fair government.

The condition of South Carolina furnishes a lesson for us. There the Republican party is in complete power; the white tax-payers have no voice in the government. Sambo "rules the roost."

What is the result? Race is arrayed against race; disturbances and difficulties are common: and there is no peace. The elective franchise has been prostituted; the ballot box tampered with, and more than one unfair and fraudulent election held.

An enormous debt has been accumulated; the finances have been grossly mismanaged, and the credit of the State injured. Exhorbitant taxes have been levied; the money collected has been squandered or stolen, year after year since the days of reconstruction, just as our treasury was plundered in 1868. We had two years of negro and carpet-bag rule. The South Carolinians have had eight years of it.

In addition to the State debt imposed by the Republicans, a majority of the counties of the State have been hopelessly involved in debt; the penal and charitable institutions have been robbed, the orphans and the insane; and venality and corruptions have pervaded every branch of the government executive, legislative and judicial.

The white people have no hand in the making or the execution of the laws they live under. They pay enormous taxes, only to see them stolen by the legislators and executive officers. Their political condition finds no parallel in history; and in their present struggle for reform and relief from the unnumbered ills they endure, they will have the sympathy of the world. It is a fight by the white race to free itself from the degrading and ruinous condition of the negro: and restore their government "to decency, to honesty, to economy and to integrity."

In the light of the bitter and terrible experience of South Carolina, to say nothing of our own experience, will the white people of North Carolina restore the negro party to power?

DR. WILLIAM HOOPER.

The death of the venerable Dr. Hooper, was not an unexpected event. He had lived out more than the allotted years of man, and death found him awaiting the call. He bore an honored name in the history of North Carolina. His grandfather was one of the most distinguished of the patriots who signed the national declaration of independence and aided in the establishment of the American government.

One who is more familiar with the record of his life, his character and services, in the pulpit and in the professors' chair, will give our readers a sketch of his career.

Dr. Hooper was a pure and zealous christian; and a true patriot. He had an exalted idea of government—one that we wish could take possession of the minds of all our people. In an oration delivered at Chapel Hill in 1829, he concluded with these words:

"This, then, is the glory which we ought to covet for our country—the glory of moral excellence—the honor of being the most virtuous nation on earth, renowned for justice, for humanity, for truth, for temperance, for industry, for pious gratitude to God, for matchless beneficence to man making happy every heart within its own spacious boundaries, and feeding from its overflowing abundance the needy of other hemispheres—the umpire of contending nations, the peace-maker of the Universe."

How far we have departed from that high standard, it is painful to contemplate. And until our statesmen, like Dr. Hooper, are impregnated with the love of virtue, justice, humanity, and truth, we cannot hope to see our country crowned with "the glory of moral excellence."

DEATH OF SPEAKER KERR.

The death of Hon. Michael C Kerr is announced. The event was expected. He has been for some weeks extremely ill; and for several days past, all hope of his recovery was given up.

He enjoyed the honor of being the first and only Democratic Speaker of the House of Representatives since the war. He was an able presiding officer, and a general favorite with both parties. When he was acquitted by the Investigating Committee of the malicious charge of malfeasance in office, the members of the House, Republicans as well as Democrats, rose as one man to their feet to do honor to his immaculate reputation.

It is to be regretted that he could not have lived through this campaign. His services in the Indiana canvass, would have been of great value to the cause of Honesty and Reform, of which he was so distinguished a champion.

THE election of Judge Settle will be a triumph of the negro element over the white.

BLACKMAILING THE OFFICE-HOLDERS.

The Republicans are raising their campaign fund by levying blackmail in the shape of assessments upon the salaries of officers of the government. Two per cent. is the rate, which must be paid on penalty of dismissal.

All the offices at Washington, and every custom house, post office and revenue office, will be scoured for this purpose. Thus, a million or more will be raised.

This is an evil that is very discreditable to the government. The present administration is carrying it to an unprecedented pitch. A bill was before Congress to punish the solicitation of election funds from office-holders but it failed to pass.

This is one of the infamies of American politics that should be suppressed. It has grown up into a well-established system under the Republican administration; and is a disgrace to the country.

THE white Radicals are as greedy as if this was the very last chance they ever expect to have for a dip into the dish. They want all the offices. At their nominating convention in Edgecombe, a negro received the nomination for the Legislature three times, but was each time non-suited, and finally a white-skinned office-seeker was nominated in his stead. This was but a repetition of the old game—the negroes to do the voting and their white deceivers enjoy the offices and the profits.

MR. H. H. HELPER of Rowan, announces himself as an independent candidate for the Senate from the Salisbury District. He says he is induced to this course, by "a profound and decent respect for the intelligence and patriotism of all the people of Davie and Rowan counties." We have no doubt whatever that the people of Davie and Rowan counties, will, in the fulness of their patriotism, show their "profound and decent respect" for the Democratic organization, by voting in the party nominee.

THE New York Express, in the following language, gives Judge Settle a rap which he justly merits:

Mosby of Virginia, the famed Confederate guerrilla, proposes to be as good a Hayes and Wheeler man as he has been a Grant man. We are not sorry that either he, or Longstreet, or Settle, of North Carolina, have cast their lines upon that side of the ship. Like Holden and others they did their full share in bringing on the civil war, and are only consistent in the party which proposes to keep it up.

THE President's bayonet policy is arousing the thinking men in the North. Mr. Dana, of the N. Y. Sun, regards it as a desperate attempt of the Republicans to hold a majority in the Senate, and says, "we are glad the issue is so early and so clearly defined. Let it be tried, not in eight States only, but in thirty-eight, before all the people." We have no fear as to the result of such a trial.

THE New York Herald thus condemns those truculent politicians who, like Judge Settle, are making it their business to raise new issues: "These men appeal to passions that should die and hatreds that should be forgotten, and they should be frowned upon as mischievous demagogues."

IT is said that the orders from Southern States in which troops are likely to be needed, to protect citizens in "the exercise of the right to vote," are South Carolina, Florida, Louisiana and North Carolina. These are the only Southern States that have Republican executives.

WE will soon receive accounts of the canvass over the mountains between Jarvis and Smith. They have made a number of appointments.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

A Vermont girl is dying from poison received by wearing striped stockings; yet the percentage of deaths from that cause is very small considering the number of stockings.

Ex-Congressman John M. Ashley, of Ohio, known as the "great impeacher" in the days of President Johnson, announces that he supports Tilden and Hendricks. He has been one of the strongest Republicans in northern Ohio.

New York Herald: Alcohol was invented 900 years ago in Arabia, and was used by ladies with a powder for painting their faces. Since that time it has been used mainly by gentlemen for painting their noses and used in a plain state because they required no powder to hide them off.

Mrs. Nellie Marshall McAfee, daughter of the late Humphrey Marshall, of Kentucky, and a near descendant of Chief Justice Marshall, has announced her intention of adopting the stage as a profession. She will make her debut in Louisville this winter, and contemplates a starring tour through the Western and Southern States.

A correspondent of the New York World, writing from New Haven, near the spot of Edwards Pierrepont's nativity, says he has investigated the parentage and antecedents of our distinguished Ambassador at St. James, and that his name is not Edwards Pierrepont at all but Munson Pierpont, that being the name by which he is known to his poor but honest relations in that vicinity, and which he himself recorded on the register of Yale College when he entered that institution.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Schuyler Colfax said in his recent speech at South Bend, "The hard times are about over." Has he made another "raise?"

Chicago Tribune: "We can dismiss Sambo from politics in the same sense that we dismiss Patrick and Johnny, Sandy and Hans."

Tilden's and Hendrick's letters are acknowledged to be "hard and soft"—hard on the ring-thieves and corruptionists, and soft on the laboring tax-payers of the land.

Republican leaders in Virginia complain that the negroes manifest no enthusiasm for Hayes and Wheeler, and that all the old-time interest in politics seems to have died out.

H. V. R., in Cincinnati Commercial: "There was one removal, however, which Spencer failed to effect. That was Wickersham, Mobile postmaster. Jewell would not touch him, because there really was no cause for removal, and thereupon Spencer became very angry at Jewell, went to the President with a tale of distress and was the prime cause of having Jewell ousted from the Cabinet."

Governor Tilden is from Franklin county, New York, from which also came Martin Van Buren, the only New Yorker ever elected to the Presidency. The people of Columbia county propose to emulate those of Westmoreland county, Virginia, the only other county in the Union that has given two Presidents to the country, and will patriotically cast, without regard to politics, a unanimous vote for S. J. Tilden. Hail Columbia!

The unexpected order communicated to General Sherman, by direction of the President, to hold all available troops in readiness to protect the rights of negro voters in the Southern States, excites universal attention, and is likely to provoke angry and injudicious comments. It will be a mistake to regard this matter as very serious. It should be looked upon rather as an adroit political manœuvre than as an effective military order.—N. Y. Herald.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Only half a dozen white men were in Ike Young's audience at Rocky Mount.

The reds of Edgecombe have nominated W. P. Mabson (col.) for the Senate and Willis Bunn (negro) and Dr. Duggan for the House.

Rocky Mount Mail: We welcome to the Democratic ranks Messrs. Walter P. Williamson and B. J. Keech, who joined the Tilden and Vance Club of Tarboro last Wednesday night.

John J. Sharp and Charles E. Sears, the radical leaders of Nash, seem to vie with one another in their efforts to stir up hot blood in the negroes against their white friends.—Rocky Mount Mail.

Polkton Ansonian: At Lawyer's Spring Church on last Sabbath, a leading member of the Republican party of this township had with him a huge bundle of the National Republican, and stood around and about the door of the church and distributed them, with as much interest and activity as he would at a political gathering.

Charlotte Observer: A gentleman from Raleigh, now in this city, who has made an active canvass of the counties of Chatham, Harnett and Moore, represents the enthusiasm in that section of the State as surpassing anything he has ever witnessed, and that men who have hitherto acted with the Republican party openly renounce their allegiance to that party, and are listing in the Tilden and Vance Clubs by the dozens.

Hon. Joseph J. Davis and Gen. W. R. Cox made splendid speeches at Nashville last week. The Rocky Mount Mail says Gen. Cox's whole speech showed "a most masterly comprehension of the situation, and was well received by his admiring countrymen;" and that Mr. Davis dissected the Republican administration, holding up "limb after limb, and joint after joint, until the senses sickened at the horrid sight of the corruption and venality that had been gangrened into every speck of that body politic."

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

A Letter from Europe.

BORDEAUX, FRANCE, Aug. 1st, '76.

Mr. Editor—There have been but few military events of importance since my last letter. The forces of Serbia and Montenegro had advanced into Turkey, but have since been compelled to retrograde, and the armies are very nearly in the same position as at the breaking out of the war. There is now but little fear of an European intervention; declarations more or less official, but all showing that a spirit of peace has breathed over the European powers have not been wanting, and we must not forget that, as summer advances, the chances of war decrease, for it would be fearfully hard on civilized armies to conduct a winter campaign in such countries as Bosnia, Herzegovina, or Serbia. Still we cannot help feeling some uneasiness at the numerous interviews of sovereigns and of foreign ministers of which the papers speak continually since some time. When we see the leaders so ready to exchange their views on every subject, surely, all cannot be going well. We are not disposed to see the future under a black cloud, still we are struck with the serious events complicating the situation, which always happen at the very moment when it seems that a peaceful ending to the struggle might be expected. Who would not have thought, towards the end of June last, that the war was drawing to a close, when suddenly we learned that Serbia had entered into the contest and was immediately followed by Montenegro. This attack was to be followed with a success so rapid and so thorough as to compel Turkey to an immediate peace at any cost; but such has not been the result; no success has been gained on either side; already they speak of a truce. But here comes Roumania, another province of Turkey, which, without any apparent reason, addresses to Turkey and the foreign powers a collective note full of demands which, if granted, will make her completely independent, and expresses her readiness to back her demands by force of arms. Turkey answers in the sweetest manner; evidently she only wishes to gain time, and the foreign powers seem disposed to stand by her. But Greece, in her turn, raises her voice, asks for an extension of territory, some say demands the whole of Thessaly; promising in exchange to remain quiet and see for lay. Trouble and confusion universal to a depth which it is impossible to even estimate, and we cannot see whence will come the Deus ex machina who will put some order in that chaos.

The French Parliament is about to take a recess after having voted part of the taxes for the coming year. The Ministry and the House of Representatives stand cordially by each other, and in spite of the reactionary tendencies of the Senate, we may expect some months of political rest, thanks to the leaders of the republican party who have displayed a moderation and wisdom worthy of the great cause they have to defend before the world.

In England, Mr. Disraeli, speaking in the House in the name of the government, has once more advocated the let alone policy, and the majority of the nation seem to be with him.

The ex-queen of Spain, Isabella, has re-entered her Kingdom with all the honors due to her rank as queen-mother, and as King Alfonso seems disposed to admit her in his councils, all the fruits of fifteen years of civil war may be considered as lost, and we should not be surprised if there was soon another revolution in that unhappy country.

Yours truly,

GEO. GROTZ.

Crops and Politics in Green County.

HOOKERTON, N. C., Aug. 15, 1875.

Mr. Editor—Dear Sir: Crops are about an average; cotton probably little above average. The political outlook is good. Our people are alive for Democracy. We will be able to hold our own.

Dr. B. S. Hardy, a former member of the Legislature, has given his adhesion to the Democratic cause: also John F. Joiner, a prominent citizen, has forsaken Radicalism.

I cannot yet say with any accuracy who our candidate for the Legislature will be.

We expect to organize clubs in every township. The good work to commence on the 26th.

We can, we must, and will beat them. The East is all right. How with the West? T. E. H.

More About the Salem Speaking.

GREENSBORO', Aug. 18th, '76.

Mr. Editor:—The excursion from Graham to Winston station, came off yesterday, and a success it was, to hear our noble standard bearer Gov. Vance address the people. Reaching the depot, our Greensboro Club was met, by the Salem and Winston Club, with an address of welcome by Mr. Watson, and responded to by Mr. Eldredge of our club, when a line of march, was formed two and two, to the front of Merchants' Hotel, when Vance was called, who, when he stilled the tumult, asked the simple question, Did you leave anybody at home? Uproarious laughter!

As to the crowd I have this from the speakers, that it was estimated to be the largest they had met on the tour, and well behaved, and very respectful to both speakers, except when Boyd's name was slightly referred to, there were "groans."

A minister who was present, said after, that there was no use of an attempt to describe the scene, and the evident manifest superiority of Vance's speeches, over that of Settle. Now there is this noticeable difference between the two, Settle seems to be in a constant strain, and does not speak at ease like Vance, who (though very hoarse) throughout, spoke with "ease," and a constant pleasant smile, such as is rarely seen under such circumstances. We are proud to know, these candidates, while they deal hard blows at each other, and such as looks like would be hard to take, keep on friendly, agreeable terms.

Vance also read from the Salem Press (of 1861 or '62, I think,) a series of resolutions by Starbuck, Wheeler, Nissen, and others of Salem, in regard to himself, and in which esteem they held him them and how they endorsed his course; but how now. That was a clincher on these, and shows how some of these same men have gone back on their friend. During the speaking and since, I have heard numbers of men say they have heard but one sentiment expressed, and that was that Vance got decidedly the better of Settle, and that Settle made about the poorest speech of the season.

The Greensboro Club carried the United States flag, and four other inscribed banners, and for said excursion, the club is mainly due their thanks to Mr. C. G. Yates, one of the Executive Committee.

SUBSCRIBER.

Affairs in Edgecombe.

TARBORO, N. C., Aug. 15, 1876.

Mr. Editor:—We have here one of the most flourishing and intelligent Tilden and Vance Clubs in the State, numbering over two hundred members. We are keenly alive to the exigencies of the times, and are doing noble service for Tilden and Reform.

The Reds had a speaking here, on Saturday last, at which the Hon. (?) Governor was present, and notwithstanding the fact that he made them a speech the audience was composed entirely of negroes with the exception of a few hungry office hunters. There is great dissatisfaction in the Radical camp here: a negro received the nomination for the Legislature three times, and was each time overruled; and finally a white skinned nigger was nominated in his stead.

At a meeting of the Hayes and Wheeler Club, held here last night, one of the speakers (a negro) read the life of the notorious insurrectionist, (and wholesale murderer of innocent women and children) "Nat Turner," as a campaign document! What may we expect next?

We are a peaceable, law-abiding people, but whenever they come "Nat Turner" on us they will meet with a warm reception.

"REFORM."

Close Shaving.

[Richmond Dispatch.]

We heard some time ago that the Republicans expected to elect Hayes by two majority in the electoral college. The proclamation of Grant that he intends to use the army for the purposing of electing Hayes shows how this small majority is to be obtained; and the statement which comes from Washington that the States he intends to force into the Republican ranks are North Caroli a, South Carolina, Mississippi, and Louisiana shows where this small majority is to come from. This is a close cutting calculation. One figure would spoil it. Its nicety renders it particularly interesting; and so we will put it down on paper that our readers may see it for themselves. The Pacific States, Indiana and New York, new Jersey and Connecticut, together with all of the southern States except those named above, being counted for Tilden, the rest of the States are to elect Hayes—as follows:

Colorado	3
Florida	4
Iowa	11
Kansas	5
Maine	7
Massachusetts	13
Michigan	11
Minnesota	5
Nebraska	3
New Hampshire	5
Ohio	22
Pennsylvania	29
Rhode Island	4
Vermont	5
Wisconsin	10
	154

Now add to these 154 votes of Grant's States—

North Carolina	10
South Carolina	7
Mississippi	8
Louisiana	8
	33

And we have one hundred and eighty-seven votes secured for Hayes and Wheeler, which is just two more than the number necessary to a choice.

But, bless us, suppose one of the props should fail. Not one can be spared. If one fails the whole structure falls. Even if Grant forces the four Southern States named to vote for Hayes we shall almost certainly be able to carry Colorado for Tilden, and her vote will elect him exactly—without a single vote to spare.

In this centennial year there is no other name so suggestive or so prophetic of victory as that of Uncle Sam.

Value of Comic Songs.

[Richmond Enquirer.]

Mr. Tennyson will now conclude, without doubt, that his life has been a failure. Had he taken to comic song writing instead of to composing poetry, he might have achieved some measure of success, and have been enrolled among the "self-made men of our times." A music publisher testified in a copyright case in London recently that 90,000 copies had been sold of the song, "Slap, bang! Here we are again!" and that the copyright of one popular comic song is frequently worth from $5,000 to $10,000. The London Echo adds: "Two things are required for the successful writing of a coming song that shall be popular in this highly civilized age—the negation of common sense, and a superhuman attainment of folly."

There are 12,000 unemployed men in San Francisco.

Mrs. Lincoln remains in the Rocky Mountains, in Colorado.

Chicago banks are not asked to make many discounts.

Hon. A. H. Stephens is well enough to eat corn off the cob.

Like the Bosnians, the Bulgarians are descended from the serfs of the old nobility of their province, who in Bosnia became Mohammedans, but in Bulgaria were exterminated.

Ex-Governor Sprague is working hard in his Providence mills to redeem his fortunes and pay the firm's debts due next February. When the dams were overflowed, recently, he went to work among his laborers and as one of them.

Mr. Edwin Booth claims that retaining his name to designate the theatre in New York once owned by him is detrimental to his professional interests, and is about resorting to legal means to compel the present owner or owners to call it something else.

The undersigned take this opportunity of thanking the people of Raleigh and vicinity for their liberal patronage during the past season, and by fair dealing we trust to merit their confidence in the future.

In order to meet the demand for the approaching Fall trade, we have placed our orders in the hands of leading manufacturers of FINE SHOES, some of whom exhibit their productions at the Great Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, which, for style, quality and price, cannot be surpassed.

We also invite attention to our complete stock of TRUNKS, SATCHELS and VALISES. In Men's and Boys Wear, we shall introduce the celebrated Newark, (New Jersey) work. In Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes, Philadelphia work will be preferred. For Farmers and Mechanics, we shall keep a full supply of Kip Boots, Brogans and Plough Shoes—prison work.

Again thanking you for past favors, we hope by personal attention to the wants of the trade to merit your patronage in the future. Very respectfully,

THE ROBESONIAN.

Published every Wednesday morning in Lumberton, N. C., by W. Wallace McDiarmid has the largest circulation of any country paper in the State. It circulates extensively in the counties of Robeson, Richmond, Bladen, Columbus, Cumberland, Brunswick, and in the adjoining counties of Marion, Marlboro and Darlington, South Carolina. As a local paper it has no superior. It is one of the two country papers whose Editor and Publisher gives his whole time and attention to its columns.

In politics the ROBESONIAN will serve to promote the principles of the Democratic Conservative party, and in compromisingly in favor of White Supremacy. Its local columns will always present in the latest and best news write up in full, intelligent and business like manner. Its editorials will be short and just and on subjects which directly concern people. SUNDAY DISPATCHES.

Speaker Kerr--His Death--Embalmer and Friends Gone to the Springs.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—An embalmer was sent to Rockbridge Alum Springs, last night, to embalm the body of the late Speaker Kerr, and to-night a casket for the remains was forwarded, a party accompanying it, including Representatives Sayler, Cessey and Young, together with Col. Adams, Clerk of the House, under whose direction, in the absence of authorized agencies, the preparations were made. Ex-Speaker Banks was invited to go, but was obliged to decline, owing to engagements requiring him to leave Washington to-night for the East. Representative Cox is at the Springs. Although Presidents and Vice Presidents have died while in office, this is the only Speaker of the House who has died. The party which left to-night for the Springs, will arrive there to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock, when it will be determined whether the remains of Mr. Kerr will be conveyed to New Albany by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad and Ohio River, or by a continuous railroad to New Albany, by way of Washington.

Reduction of Naval Force--Fraud in the Wording of a Bill.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20—The new naval appropriation bill provides for a reduction of one thousand men in the enlisted force of the navy. In order to carry out this reduction, it will be necessary to put some of the larger vessels out of commission and supply their places with smaller ones, as it is the desire of the Secretary to keep the present number of vessels on foreign stations, and not jeopardize the American interests abroad for the want of naval vessels to protect them.

It is claimed that the clause in the Legislative bill, intended to prohibit political assessments in the Executive departments, is so worded as to permit any such contributions to be solicited by parties not in the employ of the government. The law prevents only government employees from soliciting such aid.

NOON DISPATCHES.

FOREIGN.

Insurrection in Crete--Another Battle--Defeat of the Abyssians--Turkish Defeat.

LONDON, August 21.—The Roman correspondent of the Standard says: "A despatch from Athens announces that an insurrection has broken out at Retimo, in Crete.

ROSAVCI, Aug. 21.—Eyoub Pasha has left Gurgosavatz and returned to Gramada. His vanguard attacked three Servian battalions Friday, and drove them to the Ozren mountains. Their headquarters are now ten miles from Alexinatz, which, with Delegrade, will surely fall.

CONSTANTINOPLE Aug. 21.—Ala Saib Pasha is marching on Alexinatz simultaneously with Eyoub Pasha.

The Greek minister has presented a note to the Porte from the Greek government, demanding that Turkey grant the request of the Cretans, because their discontent is reaching the people of Greece.

ALEXANDRIA, Aug. 21.—Reports from Abyssania say that Walda Mikel, the insurgent chief, defeated the Abyssanians at Zackarsga, and 1,500 women and children were massacred. A despatch to the Daily News, from Alexinatz, reports that after driving in the Servian outposts Saturday, Ala Saib proceeded towards Toseca. The cannonading was heavy and the fighting obstinate, but the Servians withstood the assault. The Turks began to retreat in the afternoon, when the Servians followed, driving them across the frontier.

Arrangement for the Transportation of Mr. Kerr's Remains.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—The following was received this afternoon from Hon. S. S. Cox:

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA., Aug. 21.—Mr. Adams and Mr. Sayler arrived here this morning with the casket. The remains are embalmed, and the escort will leave for Washington this evening and arrive there at 7 in the morning, and thence by first train for the West.

Strike of Railroad Employees.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21—The employees of the New York and New Jersey Railroad Company—engineers, conductors, brakemen and trackmen—struck, yesterday morning, and since that time traffic over the road has been entirely suspended. The strike was caused by the non payment of four months' wages, and also the protesting of the notes of the company given men for payment of their wages for four months previous.

Two Men Hanged in Kentucky.

CINCINNATI Aug. 21.—Two young men, named Henry Smith and Squire Hammond, in jail at Owenton, Owen county, Kentucky, for the murder of Robert Martin, a highly respected citizen of Owen county, were taken from jail about one o'clock Saturday morning, by a band of 40 masked men, and hanged. The act is generally approved.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

Ferry Accompanies Mr. Kerr's Remains--Dr. Mott Retained--Result of Other Consolidations.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21—Vice President Ferry will accompany the remains of Mr. Kerr to New Albany, Indiana.

J. J. Mott is retained as Internal Revenue Collector for the consolidated Sixth and Seventh Districts of North Carolina; M. C. Claws is retained in Georgia, relieving Fannin, who was originally retained under the consolidation of the First and Third Districts of Georgia; Clark is also retained. In the original consolidation order, Alabama was made a single District, but as a change has now been made and the State is divided into two districts the collectors are retained, being Myers of Mobile, and Barker.

A Literary Man Dying--Honors to Speaker Kerr.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—The condition of R. H. Newell, better known in literary circles as "Orpheus C. Kerr," yesterday morning was viewed to be precarious, and doubts were entertained as to his living many hours.

Flags were at half-mast on the City Hall and municipal buildings, today, out of respect to the memory of the late Speaker Kerr.

Meeting of Fraternal Commissioners.

SEA GROVE N. J., Aug. 21.—Rev. Dr. Fuller, of Atlanta, Ga., Judge Faucher, of New York, and others, Fraternal Commissioners, appointed by the General Conference of the M. E. Church, North and South, now in session at Cape May, were today guests of A. Whilden, at the Sea Grove House. They were formally welcomed by Rev. Dr. Grammar, of Baltimore, and returned to Cape May in the evening.

MISCELLANEOUS TELEGRAMS.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 21.—Rutherford B. Hayes has resigned his membership in the State Board of Centennial Commissioners, on account of other duties.

LEAVENWORTH, Aug. 21.—A terrible storm passed over a portion of Western Missouri, Saturday evening. Serious damage was done the corn crop here, and along the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 21.—The report of an attempted train robbery on the Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs Railroad, a few days ago, proves to have been a hoax.

HARRISBURG, PA., Aug. 21.—Ex-County Treasurer Contright, of Luzerne county, who was convicted a short time since of embezzlement, has refunded to the State the sum of $19,868.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Miss Agnes Messick, who lived in Pender county, died last Friday, aged 102 years.

Henry Wilson, son of Andrew Wilson, of Rocky Mount, was drowned last Saturday a week ago.

A fire occurred in the old Exchange Hotel, at Charlotte, last Friday night, but the firemen were quickly on hand, and notwithstanding the fact that the building is old and dry, soon extinguished the flames.

The Wilmington Review learns that last Friday evening, as the train on the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta Railroad, passed Jonesboro, a young man was seen sitting beside the railroad track on a cider barrel, very drunk, and that as next morning's train passed, he was found lying on the track dead, his head having a severe wound upon it, and one of his arms badly mutilated.

A negro girl on an excursion train between Weldon and Norfolk, last week, had her hat blown off. She rushed to the door and leaped out while the train was running 30 miles an hour. The train was stopped, when it was found that she was senseless but no bones were broken. She got the hat. It was a borrowed one. This is from the Weldon News.

Piedmont Press: A bear has been seen several times a few miles below this place on South Fork river. Several men were hunting it last Wednesday and came across an escaped negro convicts in the woods, and after a lively chase he was captured. The negro was almost destitute of clothing—confessed that he was a convict from Morganton and had thrown away his clothes, for he knew everybody would recognize him at once on account of the stripes.

Last Friday or Saturday evening a terrible rape was committed upon the wife of Mr. John Beatty, of Sharon Township, Mecklenburg county. The Charlotte Observer says that Mrs. Beatty had been to the funeral of a neighbor's child and was returning to her home. She was on horseback, but had dismounted to let down the bars leading into a field through which she was to pass when she was seized by a negro man, badly choked, and forced to yield to his loathsome and brutal lusts. Sheriff Alexander has offered $100 reward for the apprehension of the scoundrel.

Asheville Expositor: Bob Burchfield was shot dead on last Saturday night, by D. K. Collins, in Swain county while the former was attempting to enter the corn crib of the latter; rather, when Burchfield found he was caught, he drew his navy and advanced on Collins, when Collins shot him. Burchfield was notoriously the worst character in all this mountain section. He had been once convicted of murder, but finally got out of it on some legal technicality, and had also just served out a term in the Albany penitentiary for counterfeiting.
